This compilation is comprised of 60 writings of Arthur W. Pink originally distributed in booklets and pamphlets. Ranging from A Great Deception, Communion and Knowing God to The Holiness of God and True Christian Love, each gives the reader an inspirational and informative word pertaining to the walk with God. Arthur Walkington Pink was an English Christian evangelist and Biblical scholar known for his staunchly Calvinist and Puritan-like teachings. Though born to Christian parents, prior to conversion he migrated into a Theosophical society (an occult gnostic group popular in England during that time), and quickly rose in prominence within their ranks. His conversion came from his father's patient admonitions from Scripture. It was the verse, Proverbs 14:12, 'there is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death,' which particularly struck his heart and compelled him to renounce Theosophy and follow Jesus.
