The Final Age of Terra Dorothea Leonard

I have classified this book as fiction, but is it? You may make your own judgement. I believe that the human being is composed of two parts. The animal side is temporary and earthbound. It is subject to the restrictions of time and space, and serves as a vehicle for that part which I will call soul. In the layers of the earthbound mind there are times remembered from our ancestral past. These memories are in the care of the eternal soul. If we listen the voices can be heard. Come walk with me and hear the voices of Terra.
