Tratamiento procesal de la insolvencia transfronteriza en la Unión Europea (Monografías) (Spanish Edition) Mercedes Llorente Sánchez-Arjona

Esta obra se centra en las penas privativas de derechos, sanciones que no han recibido la misma atención doctrinal que la pena de prisión, pese a su importancia, tanto por su elevado nivel de aplicación cuando son accesorias como por su función como alternativas a la privación de libertad cuando son principales. Se pretende, fundamentalmente, analizar su regulación en el Derecho penal español, los problemas que plantea su ejecución, averiguar el nivel real de aplicación con dos objetivos fundamentales: por un lado, facilitar su aplicación a todos los actores del procedimiento penal (abogados, jueces, fiscales), al analizar las cuestiones más relevantes que suscita su interpretación, con amplio apoyo jurisprudencial y doctrinal; y por otro, determinar si, en efecto, sirven o pueden servir como alternativas o complementos eficaces de Un penas privativas de libertad, teniendo en cuenta la doble función que desempeñan en el sistema punitivo español como penas principales y accesorias.
