Writing and Psychoanalysis: A Reader

Writing and Psychoanalysis: A Reader

This new Reader provides a wealth of material for study, giving access to some of the most profound interpretative writing of the post-war era. Some of the texts--by Foucault and Kristeva--are available in English for the first time. Others, such as key texts by Freud, are classics in the field. Together they illuminate the intersection between writing and psychoanalysis, making vivid the symbiotic relationship and the effect of the fusion on both.
