[Siren Classic: Erotic Romantic Suspense, HEA] Alaina Quinn, the town librarian, really wants to get to know Kane Sullivan, the town bad boy, better. Can she overcome her shyness to make this dream true? Kane Sullivan doesn't understand why he is so attracted to the shy and quiet Alaina, but he can't deny he wants to know more about her too. He is not popular in his hometown because of his father's bad reputation so he tries to deny his attraction for Alaina. Soon they can no longer deny their need and desire for each other and both give in to the mutual attraction. Suddenly women start being attacked and killed. When Kane and his brother are called in to help the sheriff solve the case, Kane knows he must push Alaina away for her own safety. Will Alaina be able to forgive Kane for hurting her? When she becomes the killer's next victim will Kane be able to get close enough to protect her, or will he lose the woman he loves for all time? ** A Siren Erotic Romance
