On an extended holiday from the UK, John Connington finds himself in Sydney, Australia with no lodging, and only a telephone number from a friend-of-a-friend offering him a place to stay. Trusting that God knows what He's doing, John makes the call. Jo Heywood can't believe the audacity of John Connington, yet when her flat mate knows of this obscure offer, there's nothing Jo can do. She's not prepared for the avalanche of feelings this stranger elicits. Not impressed by God's sense of humor, Jo fights how she feels. Can a long distance relationship really work or is God just testing them both?
