Sable Dunsmoor's love for the exotic land of Kenya brings her home to Africa to aid her recently widowed father in his government job on a game reserve...and to aid her future husband in his archeological quests. But the impending civil war and the dangers of international poachers force Sable to seek the aid of Kash Hallet--an adventurer she'd determined to forget, and who now seems eager to destroy the reputation of her soon-to-be fiancé, Vince Adler.

Has Kash sold his soul to the illegal ivory trade, or is this mysterious demeanor just a mask for the truth? And what of Sable's father? Will his fervent passion to save Africa's wildlife cost his own life?

In that beautiful and terrifying land, Sable faces the refiner's fire, even while she seeks to bring faith and hope to a beleaguered land.
