Serious Farm Tim Egan

Farmer Fred never smiled much. “Farmin’ is serious business,” he’d say. “Nothin’ funny about corn.” And so life on his farm was pretty serious. None of the animals laughed or even smiled. But everyone has to laugh sometimes, including Farmer Fred. The animals try everything to get him to smile: dancing by the light of the moon in Farmer Fred’s clothes, singing chickens, sheep disguised in sunglasses and mustaches. Nothing works and finally the animals decide to leave Serious Farm in search of a more cheerful place to chuckle and graze. Will the animals find a livelier home, and will Farmer Fred ever lighten up?

Kimberly Gomez:

As a university student exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library or to make summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's soul or real their passion. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to go to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring and can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important for you. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Serious Farm can make you really feel more interested to read.
