Joe Dallesandro: Warhol Superstar, Underground Film Icon, Actor Michael Ferguson The story of Warhol's greatest superstar

The renowned photographer Francesco Scavullo has called Joe Dallesandro “one of the ten most photogenic men in the world.” Springing to fame at the beginning of the sexual revolution in films such as Flesh, Trash, and Heat, Dallesandro, with the help of his mentor, Paul Morrissey, and pop artist Andy Warhol, became a male sex symbol in the film world unlike any before him. His casual nakedness and characteristic cool in the Warhol Factory's irreverent, now-classic films earned attention that crossed gender lines and liberated the male nude as an object of beauty in the cinema.

In this biofilmography, an update and revision of Little Joe, Superstar, Michael Ferguson explores not only Dallesandro's Warhol years, but his troubled childhood on the streets of New York, in juvenile detention, as physique model, and on the run. Ferguson examines all of Dallesandro's films: the eight made with Warhol and Morrissey, including the X-rated Frankenstein and Dracula, the post-Factory career in both art-world and low-budget films abroad, and his works as character actor upon his return to America.

Including new interviews with Dallesandro, photographs from the actor's personal collection, and an extensive biographical section, Joe Dallesandro is the ultimate guide to an underground film icon who, according to Andy Warhol, “everyone was in love with.”
