Ben and Kwamena live on the same street in Accra and are best friends. School is almost out for the summer and they both are going on very exciting, but very different summer trips with their families. As they will be apart, they both agree to keep a diary so that when they return they can tell each other all about their adventures.

Through the eyes of these boys, you see Ghana's rich and varied geography, with its amazing wildlife, great forests, beach resorts and beautiful national parks.
