Joshua and Judges - Jeremy Thomson

Jeremy Thomson trains and develops children's, youth and adult ministers and leaders. Here he guides meditation on the books that recount stories of Israelite conquest and occupation of the promised land. These include difficult passages full of violence, but also contain valuable insights into obedience to God's Word and the inclusiveness of God's people, thus providing abiding insights into the Church's spiritual warfare.

Matthew 8-18 - Ian Coffey

In August, biblical writer and speaker Ian Coffey looks at Matthew 8–18. Matthew writes about his own encounter with Jesus when he discovered liberating grace, and his Gospel is, in the main, an explanation of that discovery. He wrote not simply to inform us, but so that we might make a discovery of our own about Jesus - to receive fresh insights about Him.
