Floral mandala is a unique mandala coloring book featuring traditional mandala swirls found in nature, but captured in a floral spiral design. This book highlights of the essence of nature with bursting blossoms and delicate flowers seen throughout.

If you love both flowers and mandalas, then this book is for you! Mandalas are naturally displayed in the natural world. Just look around you will notice swirling patterns that come together in a flower, rose, sunflower, trees and other types of plants. The first page has a place for you to write your name and make the book your own. This page features two of the mandalas shown in the book, but they are in a more miniature form here. As you flip through the pages you'll find a variety of hand-drawn and digitally created floral mandalas.

Some of the mandalas are centered on the page and many of them are enlarged to create a more dramatic effect. You'll find all sorts of flowers in the book such as daisies, poppies, roses, tulips, star-shaped flowers and more! Some of the mandalas also look like giant flowers opening up from the center. The designs vary from basic to advanced. (Two of our favorite designs repeat once in this book).
