Forevermore The Novel: Science, Religion, Reincarnation, Conspiracy To Control the World and Live Forever Jennie Hendrickson

When modern day Jennie realizes her life experiences mirror those of Mary of Magdala, she is plunged into a world of kidnapping, murder and suspense. As Jennie discovers secrets kept hidden for 2000 years, she begins to understand the current powerful schemes of billionaires, who plan to chain God, clone him, control the world and live forever. She uncovers a shocking conspiracy that lays bare the science and motivations of those who seek to become as God and buy immortality. What really happened to Jesus? Will they do worse this time? Written by a professor of neurological psychology, this novel explores historical mysteries and links them to modern day science and technology through two illuminating stories. It is scientifically and historically accurate. It answers the questions, 'What really happened to Jesus?' 'Is God walking the earth again?' and 'Does your spirit survive death and give you another chance in a future life?'
