Peter Sager, author of Wales, East Anglia, and The West Country, now turns his attention to south-east England. Sager's journey proceeds geographically east to west. From the hop fields and orchards of Kent, the Garden of England, to the urbane county of Surrey, with its country houses and literary associations, from the village greens of Hampshire to the colorful Isle of Wight, this well-seasoned traveler gives us another invaluable guide. It is handsomely illustrated with photos and diagrams as well as two fold-out maps.
