Current Challenges in Patent Information Retrieval: 29 (The Information Retrieval Series)

Patents form an important knowledge resource –much technical information represented in patents is not represented in scientific literature – and at the same time they are important, and economically highly relevant, legal documents. Between 1998 and 2008, the number of patent applications filed yearly worldwide grew by more than 50 percent. Yet still we see a huge gap between, on the one hand, the technologies that emerged from research labs and are in use in major Internet search engines or in enterprise search systems, and, on the other hand, the systems used daily by the patent search communities.

In the past few years, the editors have organized a series of events at the Information Retrieval Facility in Vienna, Austria, bringing together leading researchers in information retrieval (IR) and those who practice and use patent search, thus establishing an interdisciplinary dialogue between the IR and the intellectual property (IP) communities and creating a discursive as well as empirical space for sustainable discussion and innovation. This book is among the results of that joint effort. Many of the chapters were written jointly by IP and IR experts, while all chapters were reviewed by representatives of both communities, resulting in contributions that foster the proliferation and exchange of knowledge across fields and disciplinary mindsets.

Reflecting the efforts and views of both sides of the emerging patent search research and innovation community, this is a carefully selected, organized introduction to what has been achieved, and perhaps even more significantly to what remains to be achieved. The book is a valuable resource for IR researchers and IP professionals who are looking for a comprehensive overview of the state of the art in this domain.

From reader reviews:

Jacob Roberts:

The experience that you get from Current Challenges in Patent Information Retrieval: 29 (The Information Retrieval Series) is the more deep you searching the information that hide inside the words the more you get thinking about reading it. It doesn't mean that this book is hard to be aware of but Current Challenges in Patent Information Retrieval: 29 (The Information Retrieval Series) giving you enjoyment feeling of reading. The copy writer conveys their point in particular way that can be understood simply by anyone who read it because the author of this publication is well-known enough. That book also makes your vocabulary increase well. So it is easy to understand then can go to you, both in printed or e-book style are available. We suggest you for having this Current Challenges in Patent Information Retrieval: 29 (The Information Retrieval Series) instantly.

Manuel Britton:

Hey guys, do you really wants to finds a new book to read? May be the book with the concept Current Challenges in Patent Information Retrieval: 29 (The Information Retrieval Series) suitable to you? The particular book was written by popular writer in this era. Often the book untitled Current Challenges in Patent Information Retrieval: 29 (The Information Retrieval Series)is the main of several books this everyone read now. This kind of book was inspired lots of people in the world. When you read this e-book you will enter the new shape that you ever know ahead of. The author explained their idea in the simple way, therefore all of people can easily to recognise the core of this reserve. This book will give you a large amount of information about this world now. To help you see the represented of the world within this book.

Ashley Washington:

Are you kind of active person, only have 10 or maybe 15 minute in your time to upgrading your mind proficiency or thinking skill possibly analytical thinking? Then you have problem with the book compared to can satisfy your limited time to read it because this all time you only find e-book that need more time to be go through. Current Challenges in Patent Information Retrieval: 29 (The Information Retrieval Series) can be your answer as it can be read by you actually who have those short free time problems.

Marjorie Ishee:

Don't be worry if you are afraid that this book will filled the space in your house, you may have it in e-book method, more simple and reachable. This Current Challenges in Patent Information Retrieval: 29 (The Information Retrieval Series) can give you a lot of close friends because by you checking out this one book you have point that they don't and make you actually more like an interesting person. This kind of book can be one of one step for you to get success. This book offer you information that perhaps your friend doesn't recognize, by knowing more than additional make you to be great individuals. So , why hesitate? Let us have Current Challenges in Patent Information Retrieval: 29 (The Information Retrieval Series).
