Assisted Living Comparison Checklist: A Tool for Use When Making an Assisted Living Decision (Seniors Resource Hub) (Volume 1) Kathy Smith

It can be overwhelming deciding to move to Assisted Living if you don't know the right questions to ask, have a way to consolidate and organize your answers and compare your options. The Seniors Resource Hub™ - Assisted Living Comparison Checklist has direct questions and suggested actions which will provide important information for the fact-based Assisted Living decision making process. When it's time to compare options and make a decision, it can be risky to rely on your memory alone and possibly confuse one option or facility with another. Additionally, using the checklist helps eliminate emotional or impulse decisions and allows for a happier and smoother transition. Once you or your senior has made the move, you don't want to regret your decision. We've organized this checklist into logical categories to assist with the decision making process: General Information, Assisted Living Services, Management and Staffing, Communication, Resident Satisfaction, References, Contract and Fees and a Glossary.
