This is a new compact edition of a book which first appeared in 1949 but was subject to a major revision and enlargement in 1979. Its central principles are the nature of 'soul' and 'spirit' and the sense of 'Christ' as an eternal being, 'the Christ'. This is a full commentary on the most mystical of the four gospels, that of St. John. White Eagle makes clear that the Christ is the central life, or light, within each one of us and that Jesus travelled the same road that each of us takes.
